

10 BIG RESEARCH STORIES FROM 2019

Projects from across the Division of Research made a splash in 2019. Here are some of the year's attention-grabbing stories:

Epidemic of deaths due to heart failure underway in U.S. Read Story »

More from Time

New study finds both components of blood pressure predict heart attack, stroke risk. Read Story »

More from NBC News

Prediction tool could identify more patients at risk of getting HIV. Read Story »

More from FierceHealthcare

Waning potency of pertussis vaccine a significant contributor to recent whooping cough outbreaks. Read Story »

More from CNN

Video visits convenient and high quality, Kaiser Permanente members say. Read Story »

More from Reuters Health

Use of insulin among older adults with type 2 diabetes not aligned with national guidelines. Read Story »

More from HealthDay

More women using cannabis daily before and during pregnancy, Kaiser Permanente research finds. Read Story »

More from NBC Nightly News

At-home dialysis improves quality of life. Read Story »

More from Medscape

New study data suggests revising heart disease management guidelines for colon cancer survivors. Read Story »

More from ASCO Post

Fewer reproductive years may be linked to an increased risk of dementia. Read Story »

More from HealthDay